

What is a material requisition and how is it generated?

Material requisitions are automatically generated when adding an inventory-type resource (stock items) to a Work Order.

Once the material request is made on a work order, the material requisition must be validated by the storeman in the "Material Requisitions" tab.

The screenshot displays the 'Material Requisitions' tab for Warehouse Alphaville. The interface includes a sidebar with navigation options: General, Stock, Purchase orders, Material requisitions, Entries, Outgoings, and Movement History. The main area shows a table of requisitions with the following data:

Id	State	Creation Date	Reference	Responsible
